

HIGH SCHOOL TOURS 2019

FPP EDU Media's High School Tours are an excellent way to meet students at some of the world's leading high schools, while building relationships with their careers advisors, by way of overseas study fairs and presentations.

The Tour itineraries are designed to maximize your time, providing face-to-face contact with well-resourced students, many of whom have a significant interest in studying overseas.

Engage face to face with students in a fair format

Your time is maximized with students of a matching profile

10-15 schools

Ten to fifteen carefully selected high schools are visited in total

Tours are led by experienced and local FPP staff

Create or maintain relationships with school counsellors

2-3 visits

Each day consists of two or three school visits

18 universities

Each tour is strictly limited to 18 universities/colleges

Per city rates or all-inclusive packages are available

Visited schools generally include private, independent, and/or international schools, that we feel have the best profile for overseas study - a tradition of high achieving students studying abroad; excellence in teaching, significant interest in overseas institutions, and high approval levels at major universities.

RECENT TESTIMONIALS

“

I am so pleased with the last Tour. Within a month of it ending, I have had one student apply from St Clare's, another student from Lytham St Anne's came to visit EHL with her Dad this past week. Another student from Ashville College has applied for our July intake. So a very productive Tour so far.”

“

I attended the Brazil High School Tour in September 2018, we visited very nice schools with a high level of students that were very interested, I even had students email me the same day of the visit asking for more specific information. I liked the mix of schools we visited and the organisation of the Tour was perfect.”

“

I liked the quality of the students and the schools. The schools were a good match for the University of Redlands. I received a few applications. I am happy with the tour and the organization.”

“

I recently participated in two amazing FPP EDU Media Student World high school tours in Colombia and Brazil. I was thrilled at the quality of student leads from the various elite high schools that we visited. Not to mention, the FPP staff was incredibly organized, thoughtful and attentive. Go on a tour with the company and you'll surely have a great recruiting experience!”
